The essence of modern easy day-to-day living in authentic Australian style. The focal point an outdoor room leading out from the open plan living area with a second kitchen where everyone can come together - an entertainers' paradise!

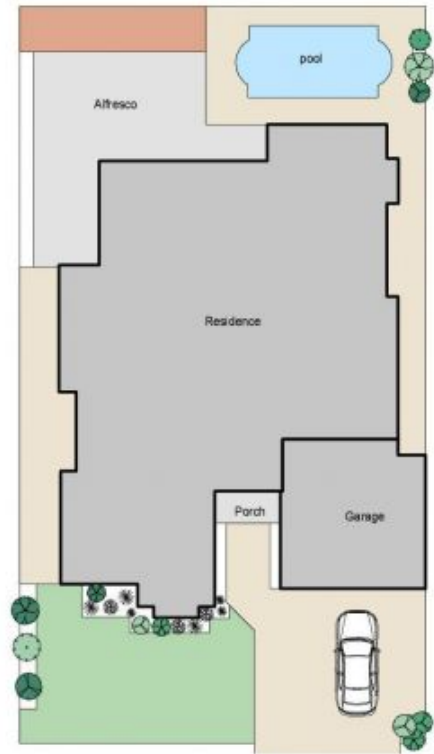

Dressed in nature's own colours, light reflections bounce off Sidney spotted gum timber floors that stretch throughout the central passageway to the living area abutting warm plush textured mocha carpets in the master, additional bedrooms and theatre. High ceilings accentuate the spacious feel of the living room. North facing the house stays a comfortable temperature year round and is cost-efficient to heat and cool.
